State of Texas }
County of Bexar }

Personally appeared before me the undersigned authority Sam Everett a resident of the above State and County who being duly sworn deposes and says that he lived in Fayette County in the year 1842 and was a member of Capt Nicholas Dawsons Company organized August 1842.

Says he was well acquainted with A. G. Blackburn who was also a member of the same Company. And knows that said Blackburn was one of the men who followed Dawson to retake him on his way to San Antonio. But did not overtake the Company until they had been killed by the Mexicans. When he then joined the Company of Capt Wm Eastland and pursued the Mexicans to the Hondo when the Texas troops returned.

Deponent further states that the applicant is the same individual whom he knew in 1842. And who now resides near Burton in Washington Co. believes him to be justly entitled to a pension as a member of Dawsons Company. And that he has no claim or interest in
