J B Rowland being by me duly sworn deposes and says, I know Ransom P. Boswell, the individual making the foregoing affidavit. I first knew him in Burleson County Texas about the year 1842 & have known him ever since. He is I think about fifty years of age. He now resides at Anaheim Los Angeles County California. To the best of my knowledge & belief he served in the Texan army in 1842 and was one of the Meir prisoners. It was a matter of general reputation in Texas that he was one of said prisoners. I believe him to be justly entitled to a pension for such service. I have read his affidavit foregoing, and believe it to be true.
