In the Matter of the Guardianship No 270 of the minor Heirs of James H. Brown and Theresa Brown deceased

In this cause it having been for come to the knowledge of the Court, that the following named parties, to wit, Cornelle Brown, August Brown, Ellen Brown and Emile Brown, are minor heirs of James H. Brown and Theresa Brown deceased and each of them under the age of fourteen years, and that the said minors are without a Guardian or Guardians of their persons and estates, and the Court having, at its regular January Term A.D. 1877, ordered citation to issue, in terms of the Statute, to all persons interested in the person and estates of said minors, to show cause why a Guardian or Guardians should not be appointed for said minors, and said citation having been returned at our March Term A.D. 1877 showing the same to have been duly posted in terms of the Statute, it is therefore considered ordered and decreed by the Court, that Joseph Lemon be and he is hereby appointed Guardian of the persons and Estates of Cornelle Brown, Ellen Brown, August Brown, and Emile Brown minor heirs of James H.
Brown and Theresa Brown deceased upon his entering into Bond, in terms of the Statute in the sum of six hundred dollars; and that thereupon letters of guardianship issue to said Joseph Lemon accordingly
