The State of Texas } I. P. Bryan a
County of Liberty } citizen of the County of Liberty and State of Texas, do solemnly swear that on or about the 8th day of October A.D. 1835 I joined the army of Texas at Gonzales and attached my-self to the Company of Captain James Fanning and served therein some two or three weeks until the arrival of more Volunteers from my home (the same being the Municipality of Liberty) when we were organized into a separate Company, of which Andrew Briscoe was elected Captain in which I continued to serve in the capacity of Orderly Sargent, and under the imme:diate Command of James Fanning then acting Lt. Col., until permitted by General Austin Commander in Chief to return home in company with many others to prepare for a winter campaign, which having done and expecting to march the next day for the seat of war news arrived of the fall of the Alamo which terminated the campaign of the fall of 1835

I. P. Bryan

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 3rd October A.D. 1870.
