The State of Texas } Before me John Rosenheimer, Goliad County } a Notary public in and for the County of Bexar, and State of Texas

Personally appeared Matias Carillo, a resident Citizen of Bexar Co. to me well known, who being duly sworn, under his oath, affirms and attests that he was born at San-Antonio, of Texian parents, in the year 1806, and that he has resided during all his life either at said place, all on his farm, on the Medina river (Bexar Co).

That, in the year 1828 affiant married at San-Antonio Teodora Ximenes, also a daughter of this Country.

That, in the year 1835 he was a married man, and the head of a family with two Children.

That, in the month of October 1835, affiant was one of the first Mexicans who answered the call of Captn John N. Seguin, for independence, that he was one of the 37 volunteers who joined the Texian patriots on the Salado Creek; that he fought at the battle of Concepcion, and took an active part in the beseiging and storming of Bexar, that overmore he furnished his cart and oxen, for the service of the Camp;

That at the storming of the aforesaid place, he entered the City, with a detachment of his fellow-soldiers, under the immediate command of Captn Dn Refugio de Leon, by the street of Las Flores and participated in the attack of the Houses of Luciano Navarro and of Angel Navarro, and did continue to fight, till the Capitulation of General Cos. —
