That on the contrary, he, up to the present day, has remained faithful to the flag of his country.—

He further protests that he is the same Agapito Cervantes who rendered in the year 1835 and 1836 the military service hereinabove alluded to; and he makes the present affidavit, in order to obtain the military pension granted by the laws of the State to the surviving veteran of the revolutionary war, to which pension he considers himself justly entitled,

He finally declares that, by act bearing even date with the present, he has constituted for his agent and Attorney in fact David V. Whiting, Esq.re of the City of Austin, giving and granting him, the power and authority stated in said power of Attorney, for the purposed end.—
