who signed the foregoing declaration and power of attorney and who is to me well known, who acknowledged that she had executed the foregoing power of attorney for the purposes therein set forth and I accordingly that she made oath before me of the facts stated and declared therein. And I further certify that the subscribing witnesses viz A. H. Rierson and Philip Andrews residents of the said county, to me well known as credible persons appeared before me on this day who being duly sworn on their oaths say that they were present and saw the said Eliza J. Cleveland sign her name to the foregoing instrument in writing, that she is the identical person she represents herself to be, and that they have no interest in the subject matter of her said declaration and claim.

Given under my hand and seal of office this 8th day of October 1877.

J. Stewart Cleveland
