The State of Texas
Walker County

To the Honr. A. B. Lindsay
Comptroller of the State of Texas

Your Petitioner Jonathan S. Collard a citizen of Montgomery County applies for a Pension under an act of the Legislature of the State of Texas passed the 13th day of August A. D. 1879 granting pensions to the surviving veterans of the Revolution which seperated Texas from Mexico

Your petitioner would further state upon his oath that he volunteered and entered the service in the army of Texas about Nov. 1st A. D. 1835 as a private in Capt. Crane's company and joined the army under the command of Stephen F. Austin on the San Jacinto River that after remaining some length of time all the troops that wished had leave to come home or were discharged and I returned with the most of Capt Cranes men ~~the Capt~~ some bor. I remaining after that expedition which resulted in taking the Town and Alamo. I again volunteered as a private in Capt Ward's company 2d Regt. commanded by Col. S. Sherman and joined Genl Sam Houston's army on the Colorado ~~about~~ on its retreat, that I continued with the army until after the Battle of San Jacinto of the 21st of April 1836 that I did not participate in said Battle being taken sick with the flux or something like it on the 20th which rendered me unfit for service for some days afterwards; I believe the sick in the Battle Ground Camp were not reported, I was either furloughed or had leave to come home, I believe that after that disease left me I joined Capt. J. H. Wade's company and served the remainder of a three months campaign that I obtained a discharge and 320 acres Bounty land I also obtained a donation of 640 acres called the San Jacinto claim being placed on the same ground or equal footing as those who participated in the Battle of San Jacinto
