Republic of Texas
Washington County } Be it remembered, that, on this 24th day of March A. D. 1845, personally appeared before me Joseph Daniel, Notary Public in and for the County aforesaid, the citizen John Cradock, who on oath declared that the forgoing account against the Republic of Texas for services as mail contractor amounting to the sum of six hundred dollars, and that the credit amounting to the sum of three hundred dollars is correct, and that the balance three hundred dollars is just and true and remains unpaid.

Sworn to and subscribed
In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and official seal at Washington date above written
