shortly after — Rice was appointed 1st Lieutenant — Johnson removed. — Ours was an Artillery Company, having Two Six pounders and one Howitzer — and was under Colo. Grant and Johnson!

From "San Antonio" we proceeded to "Goliad" from thence to "San Patricio", where we left the Cannon and were formed into a Cavalry Company, and went out towards the "Rio Grande" for horses — Returned to San Patricio under — "Johnson", with a band of horses; was detailed as guard to the Stock — And on the morning of February 27th (1836) Eighteen hundred and thirty-six, was attacked and taken prisoner by Gen Urea's division. Was kept there bound with ropes, for Fifteen days, and then marched to Matamoras where I was confined, and was held a prisoner there for Eleven (11) consecutive months from the time of my capture, The party I was taken prisoner with numbered Fourteen (14), named as follows: Samuel McKeley: Reuben Brown: Stillman Curtis: Elnius Jenks Mahan: Gaylt Langinghein: — Benson: Sebastian Francis: — Kerr: J. Bryant: — Mitchell: — Jones: — and Hall, and —
