The State of Texas } County of Harrison } Before me Thomas H. Humphries of the District Court within and for the State and County aforesaid, this day personally appeared Thomas Livingston, to me well known as the person hereinafter mentioned to be, who, being duly sworn by me, says on his oath that he was born at Nova-chez in the state of Bourgue on the 26th day of March A.D. 1817; that he is consequently in the sixty fifth year of his age; that he immigrated to what was then the state of Coahuila and Texas, from the state of Kentucky, on the 13th day of May A.D. 1832, landing on that day at Velasco, at the mouth of the Brazos River; that as a volunteer soldier he served in the Texas Revolution, in a company commanded by John Austin; that said company was divided into squads of which one was commanded by John Austin by D. G. Pagget and one by Bill Bailey; that applicant was under Capt Pagget on the march to Bragoria; that on the 27th day of June A.D. 1832 applicant as such soldier in said company participated in the battle of Velasco and that he is a surviving veteran of the revolution which separated Texas and Mexico. The petitioner says on oath that he has never received any compensation in land or money for his services in the battle of Velasco nor any pension as a surviving veteran.
