County of Bexar } public in and for said County & State — Personally Appeared J. Francisco Cuellar to me well known who having been duly sworn upon his Oath Affirms & declares in addition to his former Affidavit, that at the storming of Bexar, he was one of the Volunteer who took possession of the Verramendi house & during the attack of the City he was mainly engaged in Carrying stores & provisions to those who were fighting from that house does not in any way implies that he had not arms in hand, and fought actually with his fellow volunteers. Provisions became needed only after the Texians had had possession of said house for some time & it is then that he and several others were detached to procure said stores, but Affiant rendered a double service and he never stated that his only occupation was to Carry stores
