State of Texas } Personally appeared County of Gonzales } before me the undersigned authority, Rospet-le.
McCoy, a credible citizen of said State and County and to me well known, who upon oath says, that he knows of his own personal knowledge that George W Davis, now a citizen of the County of DeWitt in said State and aged 55 years, was a soldier in the Army of Texas in the Revolution that separated Texas from Mexico, in the years AD 1835 and 1836 in Captain Albert Martins Company and Col John A Morris Regiment And affiant further says that the said George W. Davis participated in the fight near the Town of Gonzales on the day of October AD 1835 between the Texas Force and the Mexican Troops under Gen. Ugartchea at what is commonly known as the Zeke Williams Place, and affiant further says that he believes that the said
