of August, 3th 1870. I have received for said service one land Certificate for Three Hundred and Twenty acres of land (320. acres) which I sold for the sum of Fifty Dollars. This land Certificate is the only remuneration I ever received for said service. That after my return from said Service I resided on the Brazos in Washington County for seven eighteen nine years. Thence I moved to the vicinity of Round Rock Williamson County where I lived for four years. and from thence I moved to Burnet County where I have resided until the present time. I have a family of a wife and seven Children. I have no lands of my own and my circumstances are such that I need the pension granted by the Legislature.
