I do hereby Certify on Oath that I was in Austin, Texas, when the Santa Fe Expedition marched from there and I believe that I saw John Doran on parade as a member of said expedition. I have also known him here in Washington for the last twenty five years, and I most undoubtedly believe him, the said John Doran, whose name is set to the annexed Oath of Identity, to be the same and identical John Doran I saw belonging to the Santa Fe expedition, as above stated.

I hereby swear that I saw John Doran when he was a prisoner of the Santa Fe Expedition among the Mexicans, near Santa Fe'. I was a released prisoner from among the Indians at the time. The John Doran, whose name is set to the annexed Oath of Identity, is the same and identical John Doran that I saw a prisoner as above stated. I have known him here in Washington Texas, for twenty five years, and have frequently talked over with him and other members of the expedition who were formerly here, the incidents of their March and Capture
