The State of Indiana
County of Floyd.

On this the 15th day of February A.D. 1875 personally appeared before me Benjamin F. Walker Clerk of the Floyd Circuit Court, a court of record within and for the county and state aforesaid, Albert Gogg of the county of Floyd and state of Indiana, whom I certify to be respectable and entitled to credit, and who being duly sworn by me, makes under oath the following statement. Richard Fonks now residing in Jackson County Missouri, and who has applied to the state of Texas for a pension is well known to me. I met him first in 1841, in company with Black Gogg, a survivor of the Texan revolution and both of them said that Richard Fonks had been in the war in Texas, and had been honorably discharged from service. Since the the year 1841, as well as at
