PROCLAMATION.

[illegible] LAND-OFFICE,
REPUBLIC OF TEXAS.

WHEREAS an Order, emanating from his Excellency the President of the Republic, through the War Department, has been promulgated in the Houston newspapers of the 19th instant, calling out the Militia of the Republic to repel an invading army of Mexicans.

Therefore, be it known, That I, THOMAS WILLIAM WARD, Commissioner of the General-Land-Office, by virtue of the power vested in me, by the [illegible] section of an act "entitled an act to reduce into one act and to amend the several acts relating to the establishment of a General-Land-Office," passed the 14th day of December, 1837, do proclaim that the business of all the Land-Offices throughout the Republic is hereby ordered to be suspended, until notice is given from this Department that the enemy is expelled.

Therefore, the several County Surveyors and their Deputies, and the several Boards of Land Commissioners, are hereby notified and enjoined to suspend the business of their several offices, until they shall be notified, from the General-Land-Office, to re-open the same and resume their several avocations.

L.S.

Given under my hand, and the seal of the General-Land-Office, this twenty-eighth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two.

(TX) THOMAS WM. WARD.
