#2101

The State of Texas } Before me, the Washington County } undersigned authority personally appeared this day A. J. Hensley to me well known as a credible citizen of the County of Lee, lately of the said County of Washington, who being by me duly sworn says that he was well acquainted with R. D. Heck who died in said County of Washington about the 8th day of January 1873 Said R. D. Heck was well known to affiant as a soldier in the army of Texas prior to the battle of San Jacinto - Affiant does not remember the ~~company~~ in which said Heck served; he was not in the same company with affiant. Said Heck was at the battle of San Jacinto and two or three days after the fight affiant saw said Heck with a wound in his forehead, which he said was received at the said battle and during the same.
Affiant did not see him when he received the wound; but he