The State of Texas }
County of Bexar } Before me John Rosenheimer a Notary Public in and for said County and State. Personally appeared Col. John N Seguin who having been duly sworn by me under said Oath attests and affirms that the aforesaid Jesus Hernandez joined his Command near Concepcion, just after the Battle known by that name, that he continued in the Texian Service as a private, during all the Siege of the City of Bexar, and that he took as such an active part in the storming of that place.— that after the Capitulation of Gen'l Cos he continued in the same Volunteer service till the beginning of February at which time B. Traves who was in superior Command gave leave of absence sine die, to a large portion of Volunteers whose services were no more needed that Jesus Hernandez is the very Identical man who rendered the aforesaid service and that he consider him justly entitled to the pension granted by law to the surviving Veterans of the Revolutionary War.

Juan N. Seguin

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 4th November AD 1874 Witness my hand and official seal.

Jno. Rosenheimer
Notary Public B.C.

The State of Texas }
County of Bexar } Before me John Rosenheimer a Notary Public in and for said County and State. Personally appeared Clemente Bustillo a resident Citizen of Bexar County who having been duly sworn by me declares and says under his Oath that the foregoing Affiant Jesus Hernandez was in reality a private among the Texian troops besieging Bexar, serving together with Affiant, that he was attached to J. N. Seguin's Company. That