The State of Texas
County of Smith } Personally appeared before the undersigned authority David Hill, a man well known ~~to me~~ being sworn states on oath that on and before the 13th day of March A.D. 1836 he was a resident citizen of San Augustine in Texas, that on or about that day he being then over twenty one years of age and an able bodied man, at the said place, was voluntarily enrolled in the Company of William Timbo Captain, then and there raised for the service of Texas in its struggle for Independence and in the war then waged by Mexico against Texas, that he remained in said Company as a private doing service as a soldier therein from said day of enrollment for three months continuously, during which time said company was part of Sherman's regiment, and was at, & in the battle of San Jacinto, said affiant being in said battle as a member of said Company and regiment, and remained a member of said Company doing service as a private therein untill it was discharged at said San Augustine, that affiant has been a citizen of Texas ever since the day of his said enrollment