State of Wisconsin }
County of Monroe } ss

Wm Turk D. Willger being duly sworn on oath says that he is the identical W. D. Willger who served in the year 1836 in the war of the Revolution which separated Texas from Mexico. That the affidavits of W. W. Allen & H. C Hurlbert herewith attached are the best proofs of his identity, as the soldier or volunteer who rendered said service. That the said Allen & Hurlbert are the persons who have known affiant longest, who reside in this County, & they were well acquainted with him years ago & long prior to the passage of any law granting pensions or bounties to the volunteers in that service. That affiant enlisted at Quenbors Davis Co. in the State of Kentucky and after his discharge about the 1st of January 1837 he went to Henderson County in the State of Kentucky That the comrades who enlisted with affiant went from Quenbors as aforesaid and they returned to that place after the war. Affiant saw some of them occasionally up to the year 1845 when he moved to the State of Wisconsin & since that time has lost all track of them & cannot say whether any of them are alive That he does not know of any one who