W. W. Allis being duly sworn on oath deposes and says – that he resides at the Village of Sparta in said County and has resided there & been engaged in active business for the past 14 years. That he is well acquainted with Nathan D. Willyer who resides at said Village of Sparta. That he became acquainted with said Willyer something over twenty nine years ago and during all the time since has been well acquainted with him. That said Willyer is a good business man and is well known in the community as a man of truth & veracity. That Affiant has no doubt but said Willyer is the identical N. D. Willyer who served as a volunteer in the revolution which separated Texas from Mexico & who served in Captain W. H. Reid's Company under Chas L. Harrison as commanding officer of the regiment; and that he performed such service in the year 1836. That said Willyer years ago, & during the first part of affiant's acquaintance with him, represented to affiant that he was engaged in that Revolution; and he has frequently represented to deponents since, that he was a volunteer in that service from Davis County in the State of Kentucky; That
