and after this battle was honorably discharged by Col. McMahan the commander of the expedition. Your applicant further alleges that in the fall of 1833 he again enlisted under Capt Shelvek in Austin County to fight the Mexicans and Indians this company acted as mounted volunteers and was actively employed in the military service until after the battle of San Jacinto when applicant with the rest of the members of the Company were honorably discharged. Applicant was with his company on all service except in battle of San Jacinto and was prevented from being in that battle owing to the fact that he was one of a detachment men who under orders from their commanding officer were on special military duty at that time. After the battle of San Jacinto he was honorably discharged from the military service of the Republic of Texas. Applicant never received any pay or bounty land for his military services. He received, and Records of the General Land Office will show that he did receive his Headright for one league land and that the same
