The State of Texas
County of Johnson

I Elizabeth Haly do solemnly swear that I am well acquainted with John Hubble who was a private in Captain Richard Cooper's company in Colonel Felix Houston's Regiment in the war which separated Texas from Mexico — that he is the identical John Hubble who was mustered into the service of Texas in the County of Shelby in said State — That I have known the said John Hubble for a great many years, and believe the statements made in his application of this date to be true So help me God
