State of Texas
County of Galveston }

personally appeared before me, R. D. Johnson, a Justice of the Peace for the County of Galveston, State Texas, — R. P. Boyce to me well known, — who upon Oath, deposes and says, — That he knows the James P. B. January, a Resident of the Town of Victoria, in the State of Texas, to be the Identical J. P. B. January, that was mustered in as a private on the 14th day of April 1835 in Capt Wm Grahams Company, Texas Brigade,
That he served as a man, until promoted to Surgeon of the Brigade
That he was honorably discharged on the 14th day of October 1835, and that they came to the town of Galveston, (the then Seat of Government of the Republic) to get their pay, That he believes the said J. P. B. January is entitled to a pension, under the act of the Legislature, passed for the Relief of Soldiers of the Revolution, the said Boyce being a Soldier in the same Company — R. P. Boyce

In testimony of the above being signed and sworn to before me I hereto set my hand & seal of office this 5th day of Dec 1871
R. D. Johnson
