Affidavit of death & heirship

State of Texas } Before me, County of Jackson } a John S. Menefee, a Notary Public in & for the County & State aforesaid, personally came Moses F. Kellar, to me well known, who, after being duly sworn, says that his father was Francis G. Kellar, who was in Capt Dimmitt's Company in the Texas revolution, that his father, said Francis G. Kellar died in the County of Jackson, State of Texas, in the month of July, 1891, that his mothers name was Lavinia Kellar, & that she died in the County of Jackson, State of Texas, in the month of January 8th, 1858 — that his father & mother left four heirs, children of his said father & mother, whose names are Moses F. Kellar, Eliza C Farmer Isabella R. Haynes and Martha A Gisler and that they are his only heirs — that he left no grandchildren whose parents are dead.

Also, at the same time came Pleasant Cat Rogers, a person to me well known of good character, who on oath says that he knew Francis G Kellar, who was in Capt Dimmitt's Co in the Texas revolution, and that he knew
