of three months in the army of Texas as a substitute for his father A. D. Kennard and as second Sergeant in the Company commanded by Capt J. G. W. Pierson in the [redacted] Cavalry Regiment commanded by Col Felix Houston and at the expiration of said campaign was honorably discharged and that he is the identical Michael Kennard (or Kinnard) whose name was on the Muster Rolls of said company as a substitute for A. D. Kennard - and the only Michael Kinnard in said Company - that to the best of his knowledge recollection and belief his discharge for his services as aforesaid were forwarded to Austin in connexion with his bounty warrants each for 320 acres of land granted by the Government respectively for his services in said two campaigns and if not destroyed in the adjutants General Office when the same was consumed by fire he supposes said discharges