of the Spring of A.D. 1836 during which campaign was fought the decisive battle of Sanjacinto that the company of said Joseph L. Bennett was after said Bennetts promotion to Lieutenant Colonel commanded by Captain James Gillespie that he said White first became acquainted with said Michael Kennard in said Company in which said Kennard was also a Soldier and served with him as such in the campaign aforesaid and that said Kennard is the identical Michael Kennard who served in said Company and whose name was on the muster rolls of said Company and that he said White knows of his personal knowledge that said Kennard participated as a Soldier in behalf of Texian Independence