Thus "Kennard Michael, for A.D. Kennard, spelled with an "e" instead of "i" this land was his bounty for his second campaign in 1836, as substitute for my Father. Some of my Father's family spelled the name "Kennard" and some "Kinnard" The applicant was in the habit of spelling his name in the latter mode.

I hope the references I have made will enable you to find such record in the General Land Office as to induce a favorable decision on my brother's case.— I have written to Messrs Chandler & Carleton on this subject who will be authorized to receive the certificate, and the present entitle=ment of the money due.

Very Respectfully
Your Obt Svt
Jno. R. Kennard
