guide you in an examination at the General Land Office for the papers in connexion with my brother's bounty land, and where perhaps, if not burned in the Adjutant Generals Office, my brothers discharges may be found - or his bounty warrants. - Please let me hear soon the prospect of success in this matter -

Very Truly

Jno. D. Hennard