2

hereby attached and certified copy of affidavits of A. W. Davis and Edward Smith and made a part of this Petition. That he drew his Pension Bounds as provided by law. Petitioner represents that he is aged and infirm. That he suffers with Rheumatism and a disease of the head to such an Extent as to render him incapable of performing the manual labor necessary to support his family. That his family consists of an aged wife named Sarah N. Kirby fifty four years of age who for a great portion of her time has suffered with Asthma. That they have three daughters named Victoria Kirby, Philena Kirby and Armenta Kirby the eldest being only Eighteen years of age. Petitioner represents that he is very poor and absolutely in indigent circumstances. That his Entire worldly effects consists of a small tract of land with two unfinished Cabins upon it; two horses and two colts, five or six head of Cows and Calves, a few hogs and poultry and a scant supply of household furniture with no money or other means. That his Entire Estate if sold at a fair