reason to believe from the appearance of said applicants, and their acquaintance with them, that they are the identical persons they represent themselves to be, and that affiants have no interest in the prosecution of this claim; that affiants were intimately acquainted with Barzillai Kuykendall, late of Washington Co. Ky. deceased, and with his family for the last twenty years; that he died on the 31st day of Mar. A.D. 1873; that he left surviving him a widow, Elizabeth Kuykendall, who died on the 16th day of April A.D. 1873; that he left surviving him only four legitimate children, to wit: William H. Kuykendall and Nannie Kuykendall, by his said widow, Elizabeth, and Lucinda Hammond and Martha Orrell, by a former marriage, the above named applicants; that he left no grand children surviving him whose parents (or either of them) are dead
