appeared H. G. Morgan, who after being sworn deposes and says as follows to wit:— I, H. G. Morgan, do solemnly swear that I am acquainted with Hamilton Davis, applicant for pension, whose application I have had filed in the Comptroller's office, with Seaborn Day, my fellow soldier, with applicant since my first knowing applicant to be the same Hamilton Davis, and he is present himself to be the said applicant & affiant knows Affiant (H. G. Morgan) and the said Hamilton Davis from the year 1836 to the month of April 1837 during the war in Texas in Capt. Jim Smith's Company, and I did serve in the same company with said Hamilton Davis, & further state that affiant was also in the year 1842 a member of Milton McQueen's company, & served in the same company with Hamilton as Col. and Samuel S. Davis as Lieutenant Col. & participated in the revolution that secured Texas from Mexico, & also participated in the battle of Mier, Mexico, in behalf of Texas affiant further says that he knows of his own knowledge that since applicant Hamilton Davis left the said company with affiant & participated in said battle fought at Mier, Mexico, in August 1842 & took part in the same in behalf of Texas & he (applicant) also took part in said revolution with this affiant (sign) H. G. Morgan
