George Jacob Lilly being duly sworn deposes and says:

I was born near Landau in Germany in 1819. I was under Kendall in the Santa Fe expedition and was taken prisoner and was released at Puebla. I furnished my horse and equipments all except a cap and a jacket and was through and with the expedition and served as a member of it from beginning to end. I have a wife and family, one child only ten years old. I reside at 173 ~~[illegible]~~ Elis Street New Orleans, have no property, I work in a billiard room cleaning up, and act as porter. I have not sufficient property without the aid of the pension granted by the Texas State government and becoming infirm desire the benefit of it.
