Hon. S. H. Darden
Comptroller of Public Accounts
Austin, Texas,

Sir.

Sometime in January or February 1873, during the incumbancy of your predecessor, I filed in the Comptroller's office applications for pensions for Christopher Ludwick, of Kentucky, Israel Jennings of Indiana and Joseph Hardy of Ky.

The Comptroller was or seemed to be satisfied with the proof, and placed the applications on file, but refused to issue certificates, because the applicants were enlisted subsequent to the 21st of April 1836. but informed me that they were "filed subject to any future legislation in matter of pensions."

I am the Agent and Attorney for
