$1000 last year. It cost me that; The assessor suggested at the time it was too high. I could not sell it for that. I think the cash value of all I have, is $700 or $800. Have only one mule, no other horse, two cows, 8 or ten hogs. Have been depending on my son for a living. Have a wife & five children living with me, one a young man 24 years old.

Deputy Sheriff introduced by County Atty shows that for 1876, taxable property of Petitioner was rendered at $1335. Petitioner says it is true, it was so rendered but, it would not sell for that amount as above shown.

This is all the proof. J. D. Thomas.

Approved & ordered to be. Atty for Petitioner embraced in the Record.

A. M. Barmore. Jno. N. Henderson.

Judge 6th B.C. Co Atty B.C. Representing the State

Order of Court.

Henry M. Lyon "Exparte" } This cause after legal notice came on for trial on the 20th day of March 1877, & the Atty appeared by his atty & the County Atty Jno. N. Henderson Esqr appeared for the State & filed an answer. Whereupon proof was offered in support of the Petition And the Court being satisfied that the allegations of the Petition were fully proved & are true & that Petitioner is entitled to the relief