The State of Texas }
County of Karnes } Before the undersigned authority this day personally appeared Dewitt C. Lyons to me well known, who after being duly sworn by me states on oath that he is one of the survivors of the revolution which separated Texas from Mexico, that he served in the army of Texas during said revolution for a period of three months, between the first day of May 1836 and the first day of Oct. 1836 (affiant does not now recollect the exact date that he was mustered into service nor the precise time that he was discharged but he knows it was between said dates alone mentioned as will appear by the record in the regard office of the state of Texas) affiant further says that he was a private in Capt Wheelock's Cavalry Company, and that during the latter part of his service & at the time of his discharge he & said Company were under the command of Genl. Felix Houston, and that [illegible]
