men went the road for more horses. and we attacked at Agua Dulce on the return and all killed but two, S. Curtis & R Brown — We were (Eight men) sent with the Horses to Julians Ranch three miles below San Patricio — on the Morning of Feby 29th 1836 we were attacked by a large party of Mexicans and all killed excepting Wm Langenkrim, George Copland and myself — I was severely wounded from which I have not, nor never will recover from. the three of our Co. and Eleven of Capt Llewellyns Co were marched to Matamoros tied two and two. — we remained in prison. with hard work and scant fare untill 29th Jany — when we were liberated by Genl Bravo —

In the fall of 37 I obtained from B Bee Secy of War my certificate for Bounty Land 1280 acres. (Since lost)

X, X Wm Langenkrim's dates and mine are slightly different — he may be right, but as I have written as I remember. it can make but little difference
