The second devision merty ole of Cavalle men went out he molemore rode some distant ther was a small path from the road went to the river they marched as along that path 20 or 30 yds there we was halted as soon as they gard on the right was counter marched back out of the way the gard on the left fired on us all that was not shot down broke for the Vanantone river some was killed betwixt that and the river and some in the river and some after they had crossed a man by the name of Reas and myself went through the bushes to the edg of the perary and there laid doung all day when knight come Reas sed he could strike the worloop river below victory we ~~started~~ travelled all knight and the next morning we found our selves rite on one devison of the mexican army and they took us the second time they took us in this camp but would not allow us to be questioned to gether Reece told them that he was a welchman and hapened in Texas and they paised him in the army they ast me if wasant one of Col Fanins men that made ther escape the day before I told them I was not
