Col Gare in the mexican army Spoke good ingleish he come up to me and told me i need not deny being one of them for he new i was i then oned that i was one of them he turned off and went into his tenne and in a short time after he sent me some thing to eat he then come out and told me that he wanted me to stay with him she tied a white string around my left arm she told me to keep that on and non of the comon sorgers would bert me then marched to victory from there to lexoner from lexoner to colorado we closed the river and to the maigord from there to the Brasas river i ther ask Col gare what had become of col Fannin he told me he was shot he told me that the last devision was taken out in a lot that was fenced in with brush ther they was shot and the wonded was shot in the fort he told me that Col Fannin was the last man that was shot they blin folded him and too of them shot him we then marched from the brasas the same road we come when we got back to victory i herd that old Santiano was whipt and that huston army was a poltering them i then watched a chanse to run off i was not long after that before i made my scape i got out