309

Sarah, McClelan
-vs-
The State of Texas

On this 12th day of October 1877 came on to be heard the application of Mrs Sarah McClelan the widow of William McClelan Decd who was a voluntary soldier in the army of the Republic of Texas, for a certificate entitlating her to be placed on the Pension roll of the State as the surviving widow of the said William McClelan deceased, in accordance with the Act of the Legislature of the State of Texas providing pensioners in certain cases therein named, approved July 28th 1876, the State being represented by the County Attorney of Harris County, and the Court having examined said application and the affidavits filed in the papers of this cause in support of said application and having heard Evidence in support of said application and being satisfied that the same states such facts as are required by said Act to entitle said applicant, to a pension, and from the evidence heard that the facts therein stated are true, said facts so stated are certified to be true, and it is ordered that a certified copy of this order and of said application under the seal of