Oath of Identity

Samuel McCulloch of the town of San Antonio in the County of Bexar, and State of Texas on this tenth day of November One Thousand Eight hundred and Seventy, personally appeared before me, the undersigned, a Justice of the Peace for the County and State above mentioned, who being duly sworn, according to law, declares that he is the identical Samuel McCullock who was a private in Captain George Collingsworth's Company

Regiment unorganized or to him unknown Volunteer irregular Infantry Troops, that he enlisted or joined the Command in the months of September, or October 1835 for the term of three months and was wounded in the taking of Goliad in the Fall of 1835, and was taken home without having received a regular discharge the same year from Goliad, though actually discharged from the service by reason of said wounds
