At Home Dec 8th 1874

John D. McCall Esq

Dear Sir

A few weeks since, Mr Lowry mentioned to me having met you; and said if I had any papers relative to the indebtedness of the old Republic of Texas to my husband, it would perhaps be worth my while to send them to you. I have come across some documents bearing upon the matter which I now enclose.

I never know from yourself that you were so active a friend; but have heard through others of your solicitude in my behalf. for which believe
