State of Texas
County of Jackson }

I John S. Menefee of said State and County aged fifty seven years (the 24th day of June last), hereby make application for an annual pension granted by the last Legislature of the State of Texas by "an act granting pensions to the surviving veterans of the revolution which separated Texas from Mexico" approved August 13th 1870.

I solemnly swear that I was a private in Capt. Moseley Baker's Company of the first regement commanded by Edward Burleson, in the campaign of the spring of 1836, and that I was in the battle of San Jacinto
