James Corry of Major Burton Battalion of Rangers was attached to the Regiment then under my Command the Company commanded by Capt Jm Roades in the month of June 1836. He was enrolled for twelve months, in the month of June, and died at Camp on Colette Creek on the 21st day of August 1836 — I am not possessed of any papers to show that he ever draw any public property while in service.

Given at Camp Bowie "Hd Qrs Consolidated Army of War" this 3d day of June 1837
