State of Texas } Before me the undersigned
County of Brazos } personally came James Mitchell who upon oath says that he was a soldier in the Army of the Republic of Texas in 1836 That he enlisted under Col Griffin Bayne in Tennessee in 1836 - that Thomas Blanton, William A. Parks Willis Collins and others were in the same squad - Affiant reached the Army in Texas early in March 1836 and served for the three months following and received for said service a Bounty Warrant for 320 acres of land - After reaching the Army in Texas he was attached for a while to the Artillery Company of Capt I. N Moreland; but at the time of his discharge his company had been consolidated with other companies and affiant was sick when the discharges were issued and does not recollect by whom he was discharged but knows he was honorably discharged the active part of the time while in the service as a non-commissioned officer

Affiant believes he is entitled to a pension for which he now applies.
