Oath of Identity

John H. Moore, near the town of La Grange, County of Fayette in the State of Texas on this nineteenth day of November One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy, personally appeared before me, the undersigned, a Justice of the Peace for the County and State above mentioned, who being duly sworn, according to law, declares, that he is the identical person who was the Colonel of the Regiment, in said Army of the revolution which separated Texas from Mexico, Known and Styled as the "Volunteer Army of Texas", that he enlisted in said army and was elected Colonel thereof on or about the 30th day of September 1835, for the term of the war, aforesaid, and served in said Army, as, set forth in his Aff't. hereto attached, but was never regularly discharged from the service aforesaid, in writing, but was honorably discharged, at the disbandment of said Army as stated in said affidavit.

J H Moore

Sworn to and subscribed before me at La Grange, Fayette County Texas, on this 19th day of November 1870.

P. Y. McAshan J. P. F. C.

I certify that P. Y. McAshan, before whom, the above affidavit purports to have been made, is a Justice of Peace, duly authorized to administer oaths and that the above is his signature. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal this 19th day of the year Eighteen Hundred & Seventy at La Grange, Fayette County, in the State of Texas.