The State of Indiana }
~~Floyd~~ Jefferson County ss: } Joseph Rogers, a citizen of this County, to me well known and fully entitled to credit, says that he is the identical Joseph Rogers who was Colonel of the first regiment of permanent volunteers in the army of Texas organized in the fall of 1836, in the army commanded by Brigadier General Felix Huston. He says that George W. Morgan of Mount Vernon Ohio, who now applies for pension under the laws of Texas is the identical George W. Morgan, who was first a private and then first sergeant of the company commanded by Captain Thos. J. Morgan in said regiment, and that affiant believes that said Morgan enlisted and served in said army of Texas from September 1836 until September 1837, and affiant further believes that said Morgan further served as