To

Hon A. Bledsoe Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

Application of Gordon N. Mott, a survivor of the "Revolution which separated Texas from Mexico", for a Pension Certificate.

The said Gordon N Mott being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that he is fifty Eight years of age, that in the summer of the year 1836, he enlisted as a private soldier in a Military Company, organized, armed and equipped for service in the Republic of Texas, under the Command of Captain Charles Colinick.

That said Company joined the main Army of said Republic and was mustered into service at a point on the Lavacca river, near its entrance into Matagorda Bay in said Republic of Texas in the autumn of the year 1836, and that said Company was soon thereafter attached to a Regiment under the command of Col ___ Wigington.

That said military Company, of which this deponent was a member, remained in the service of said Republic of Texas, at various Encampments on the Lavacca and navidad rivers in said Republic of Texas, until the Army was disbanded in the Spring or Summer of the year 1837.

That this deponent performed Military duty as a private soldier, regularly, in said Military Company
