Personally appeared before me the undersigned authority George J. Neill some well known who upon oath says that he is the George Neill who enlisted & served in a Company of Volunteers in the early part of year 1836, which Company was commanded by Capt John C Hunt. and that he received an honorable discharge from the said service signed by said Capt Hunt which discharge he afterwards handed to Ed. Burleson

He has been informed and believes said discharge is now on file in the Comptrollers Office of the State of Texas

He never knew of any ~~the~~ George Neill in Texas at that time except himself & does not believe there was any such or he would have known something of him

George J Neill
